3. [ ] Comment. Troops of the 49 Army mentioned above formerly served with FU Tso-yi. 50X1-HUM

[ ] Comment. The status of the 49 Army is unclear. Available information places it in the Nanning area of Kwangsi and indicates the possibility of its inactivation. [ ] in May 50X1-HUM
1952 the 49 Army was stationed in the Nanning area. 50X1-HUM

[ ] the dissolution of the 49 Army in April 1952, with the 147 Division becoming a public security division, another division being transferred to the 21 Army Group in Hunan, and the third remaining in Kwangtung for work on the rubber plantations. Reinforcement/replacement detachments of the 146 Division were indicated in Korea in December 1951, but it is highly improbable that the 49 Army as a whole sustained casualties of this magnitude. This office is unaware of any previous reports of the 49 Army's presence in Kiangsi or Hupeh.
